

PRODIGAL SONS MAY SWAMP TAMMANY.

They Are Coming to the Fold in Numbers—Latest Accession Is Herman Ridder, Who Dictates Terms.

Tammany Hall is getting a surfeit of prodigal sons, and is beginning to feel that there is a real famine of the kind of many more fatted calves have to be sacrificed.

The latest prodigal sending word in from the gate presumes to dictate terms for his return, and the worst of the situation is that the men who are running the ancient organization don't dare resist it.

Herman Ridder, leader of the German-American Reform Union, and a member of the committee that nominated Seth Low for Mayor, is given as authority for the statement that most of the 125,000 Germans who voted for Low last fall are ready to return to the Democratic fold this year and vote the whole ticket, judicial, legislative and Congressional, provided that Tammany puts up an upright, clean judiciary ticket and legislative nominees that will be a guarantee that the excise laws will be amended so as to put an end to the sale of saloons at times when other saloons are permitted to do business.

Mr. Ridder said: "German-American Democrats of Greater New York would be glad, I believe, to support a man like Chief-Justice Alton B. Parker for Governor, and to line up under the leadership of ex-Senator Hill. I certainly would be, and if Tammany will give us a good ticket, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the anti-trust of last year, I believe the German Democrats would give it their support."

SHE HAD ANOTHER'S BABY CARRIAGE.

Mrs. Lassberg said that the man who moved her furniture must have made mistake in taking it.

Mrs. Annie Lassberg, twenty-three years old, of No. 22 East Ninth street, was arrested in the Yorkville Court this morning on complaint of Mrs. Ada Hirschfeldt, of No. 145 Second avenue. Mrs. Hirschfeldt accused Mrs. Lassberg of having in her possession her baby carriage, which is supposed to have been stolen last December.

Patrolman DeLoan, at Second avenue and Ninth street, last night found Mrs. Lassberg, the baby carriage and a baby. He called Mrs. Hirschfeldt and she identified the carriage. At the Fifth street station Mrs. Lassberg explained that she had formerly lived at No. 145 Second avenue, and that the "moving man" might have made a mistake and taken the wrong carriage. When Mrs. Hirschfeldt heard the explanation she wanted to withdraw the complaint, but the sergeant said the matter would have to be settled in court. Mrs. Lassberg was bailed out by her husband.

WOMAN BROKER BEAT A MAN.

Wealthy Henrietta Schwartz Accused of Hitting John C. Hoffman Whom She Said Insulted Her.

A woman, expensively dressed, wearing diamonds, was taken to the East Fifty-first street station by Policeman Richard Sullivan on the complaint of John H. Hoffman, of No. 135 West One Hundred and First street, who charged that she had assaulted him with an umbrella without provocation.

The woman said she was Henrietta Schwartz, a money broker, living at No. 8 East Forty-second street. When Sergeant Brennan asked her her age, she replied: "Please don't ask me that, sir; just say that I'm over twenty-one. You might say, too, that I'm single." Hoffman said the assault occurred in the hallway of the woman's home, which is an office and studio building. In denying the charge the woman said that he had insulted her, but that she resented it by pushing him to one side. Hoffman's forehead was swollen, however, and he looked as if he had been the victim of an assault.

Sergeant Brennan refused to hold the woman and advised Hoffman to go to Yorkville Court and procure a warrant for her arrest. He left the station-house, saying he would apply for a warrant immediately.

WEDDING TOKEN COMES TO GRIEF.

Eckhardt Fell Four Stories Trying to Affix a "Tick Tack" to a Window in Jersey City.

Fred Eckhardt, twenty-two years old, of No. 9 Bartholdi avenue, Jersey City, tried to play a joke on a newly married couple. As a result he is in the City Hospital with several of his bones broken and his penchant for joking badly shattered.

He attended the wedding of Annie Donegan and Reinhold Paterson, at No. 50 Mercer street, and at 2 o'clock this morning climbed to the roof of the four-story house to attach a "tick tack" to the window of the bride couple. He fell four stories to the ground and was taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

SEARCHING SOUND FOR MAN'S BODY.

Anxious Vigil of Wife of Young Boynton, Who Is Thought to Have Been Drowned While Fishing.

In behalf of a broken-hearted young wife who weeps over her orphaned babe, Dr. C. H. Boynton, a popular Harlem dentist, made the request of the police to-day that a general alarm be sent out for a search for a dead body. The doctor was deeply affected as he told the story to Roundsman Rebehn, of the Information Bureau, at Headquarters.

Walter Boynton, his son, aged twenty-three years, married only a little over a year ago, and with a girl-wife, and three-months' old babe, went to the doctor's farm at Westfield, Conn., on June 8, for his health. The same day Walter went out on the Sound fishing. He never returned, and is believed to have been drowned. The boat was found overturned, and his coat and vest were also found in the water. The young widow is frantic with grief, and constantly cries to those about her to find Walter's body. All efforts have failed thus far, and fearing that it might float to some distant point and be sent unidentified to some poster's field, Dr. Boynton asked that a description of his son be sent all along shore.

The most distinguishing marks are a missing top joint of the second finger and part of the thumb of the left hand.

SALISBURY IS ILL.

Premier Recovering from Chill, Cabinet Meeting at Residence. LONDON, June 18.—A Cabinet meeting to-day, at which Lord Salisbury presided, was held at his official residence in Arlington street, for the convenience of the Premier, who is recovering from a chill.

SOUGHT DEATH FOR MAN SHE LOVED.

Leah Soley Committed Suicide Rather than Be a Drag on Young Hardenburg Through Life.

Leah Soley, a pretty woman twenty-two years old, killed herself with carbolic acid rather than marry the man she loved and be a drag to him. Life without him had no charms.

Her body is at the New York Hospital, and the man for whom she killed herself is almost prostrated by the tragedy. The young woman lived at No. 304 West Thirty-sixth street. In the same house also lived Harry Hardenburg, who is an employee of the American Ice Co. The two are said by the police to have been very much attached to each other. "I cannot live without him," she said, "but I will not have him give up all that is good for me, although he desires to do so."

Then she displayed a vial of carbolic acid, "This is my best friend," she said, and swallowed the contents before she could be restrained.

William Lang, of the West Twentieth street station, was called. He sent the woman to the hospital, but she died on the way there.

DELMOUR STOPS FIGHT.

"Whispering Larry" Changes His Mind About Carroll. "Whispering Larry" Delmour came downtown quietly, and under the trees in the City Hall Park announced that he had given up his fight against John F. Carroll for the Tammany leadership in the Twenty-ninth Assembly District.

"Whispering Larry" started out two months ago "to put Carroll out of business." He opened headquarters on Lexington avenue and held meetings almost every night. He has since made up his mind that Carroll can never get any higher than he is in Tammany Hall, and has therefore decided to give up the fight for the present. Should Carroll attempt to dictate to Tammany, however, Delmour will come out against him again.
